

Date : 22/4/20

Class : III

Subject : English Literature

Worksheet 1: Grammar

Regular and Irregular Plural Nouns

1. Write the plural forms for these nouns.

a. beach beaches

b. wolf wolves

c. dress dresses

d. sheep sheep

e. friend friends

2. Look at the underlined singular nouns in these sentences. Rewrite the sentences using plural nouns. One has been done for you.

a. The child was asking for a biscuit.
The children were asking for biscuits.

b. Seema always shares her toy with me.
Seema always shares her toys with me.

c. Shubh painted the bench with his sister.
Shubh painted the benches with his sisters.

d. Polish your shoe and iron your cloth.
Polish your shoes and iron your clothes.

e. Tejal is hiding behind the bush.
Tejal is hiding behind the bushes.

Collective Nouns

Collective nouns name groups of people, animals and things.

Examples a group of students and a pack of dogs.

3. Fill in the blanks using collective nouns from the box.

shoal pride band bouquet pack pile

- a. A pack of cards.
- b. A bouquet of flowers.
- c. A pile of books.
- d. A band of musicians.
- e. A pride of lions.
- f. A shoal of fish.

4. Circle the correct collective nouns in these sentences.

- a. The herd/group of friends met after a week.
- b. I lost my bunch/bouquet of keys today.
- c. A flock/bunch of birds are singing outside my window.
- d. We saw a herd/pride of cows grazing in the field.
- e. I saw an army/group of ants in the garden.